

New Foreclosure Protection for Renters.

An estimated 40 percent of households facing eviction due to foreclosure are renters - who are often evicted with little or no notice after their landlords were unable to pay their mortgages. But renters now have some protection against eviction under the foreclosure prevention bill signed by President Obama last week.

<http://civilrightscoalition.org/ct/11cXWs91qXdo/>